

Mothers Teach
By: John Enyart & Donald Nelson

Mothers teach
Your children well
Raise them up
So they can tell
Right from wrong
Heaven from Hell
Mothers teach
Your children well

Years ago
When I was young
My mother cautioned
Her four sons
She told us of
The ways of life
And how the bad
Would lead to strife

She took us all
To Sunday School
And there we learned
The Golden Rule
We also heard
Of Jesus' love
And how we'd go with Him
Someday above

As time went on
I went astray
I can see Mom's tears
Just like yesterday
I'd let her down
And she felt my pain
Cause she prayed for me
Time and again

Not long ago
I came back around
When Jesus' love
Again I found
And I thank my mom
For directing me
To a place one day
Jesus' face I'll see

More than Mother's love
Jesus loves us too
He wants me
And He wants you
So come to Him
Shout His name out loud
And I'm sure it'll make Any Mother proud
