

The Christian Should.....

Be the one holding the umbrella over someone else

Be the one who says "I'm not hungry right now" when the food supply is low

Be the one who says "Go in front of me" to the older folks when there is ample food

Be the one who goes to the hospital to check on someone rather than calling them

Be the one holding someone's hand in troubled times

Be the one going out of their way to help someone

Be the one whose actions speak for their beliefs

Be the one believing a Christian can do more

Be the one smiling

Be the one who can get a blessing from something so simple as this
